

Recruiting Companies

HEC MBA participants gain access to leading recruiters in a wide range of international companies. In fact, the 2007 Wall Street Journal survey of MBA recruiters ranked HEC #9 worldwide. The companies and organizations in the chart below made job offers to HEC MBAs who graduated in 2007, according to information that has been compiled entirely from the graduates themselves. Below this table, we have also included the companies and organizations where our participants completed internships.
