

How is career building integrated into the curriculum?

By forging links with the Human Resources faculty, we have been able to add a career-building module to the curriculum. At five different points in the MBA cycle, participants pass through specific milestones that are integrated within the academic program.

 back to Career FAQs