

Are Part-Time participants integrated into campus life?

While Part-Time participants tend to have more outside commitments than their Full-Time classmates, they are encouraged to take advantage of on-campus opportunities including events, conferences, and student clubs. Part-Time participants also have their own dedicated Student Representative who represents their particular ideas and concerns and as a liaison with the MBA staff and faculty.

 back to Part-Time FAQs