Getting to Campus

- HEC Paris, 1 Rue de la Libération, 78351 Jouy-en-Josas Cedex

HEC Paris is located on a 300-acre wooded campus, 12 miles (20km) southwest of Paris, where the culture, history and charm of the French capital is easily accessible. Versailles is the nearest town to Jouy-en-Josas – located just 7km away by car, or 9 minutes by train.

From the HEC Campus to Jouy-en-Josas there is a bus, or alternatively you can walk. There is a shortcut which reduces the walking time significantly: please note that you will need your student card to open the locked gate leading up to campus.

Trains

The RER C serves Jouy-en-Josas and you can access this from Versailles Chantiers or Massy Palaiseau. To see the live timetable for the RER C, you can visit the Transilien website: www.transilien.com.

For more information about transport in Paris – including the best ways to get around using the Metro and bus routes – you should visit the RATP website: www.ratp.fr.

Both Transilien and RATP have apps which can be downloaded onto your smart phone.

Buses

The buses running between the HEC Campus and Jouy-en-Josas station are run by Phébus; you can take either the GHP or Z line.

When you arrive on campus, you will be given a Savac bus timetable. Savac buses run between Massy Palaiseau and the campus in the mornings and evenings, and there are also buses that go from the centre of Paris to the HEC Campus on Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.

Navigo

The travel pass for the Paris area is called a “Navigo,” which you can pay for on a weekly or monthly basis. It covers a variety of zones in and around Paris. To find out more, or to order a Navigo card, please visit: www.navigo.fr
